

Chapter 13. Reference Tables

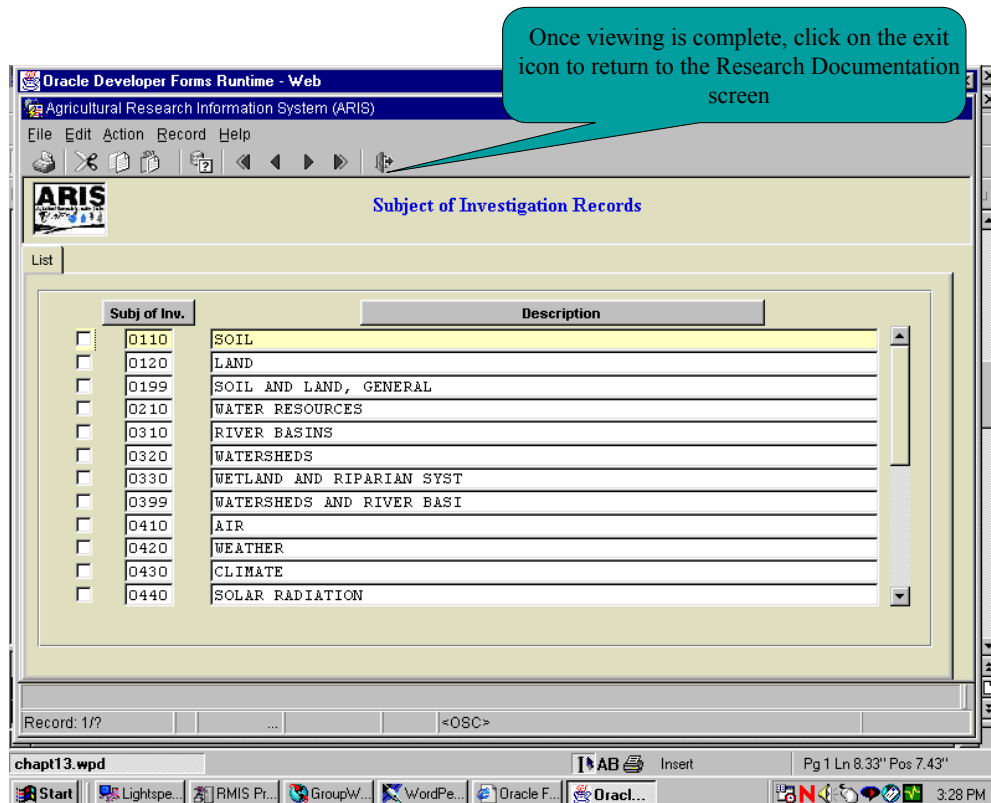

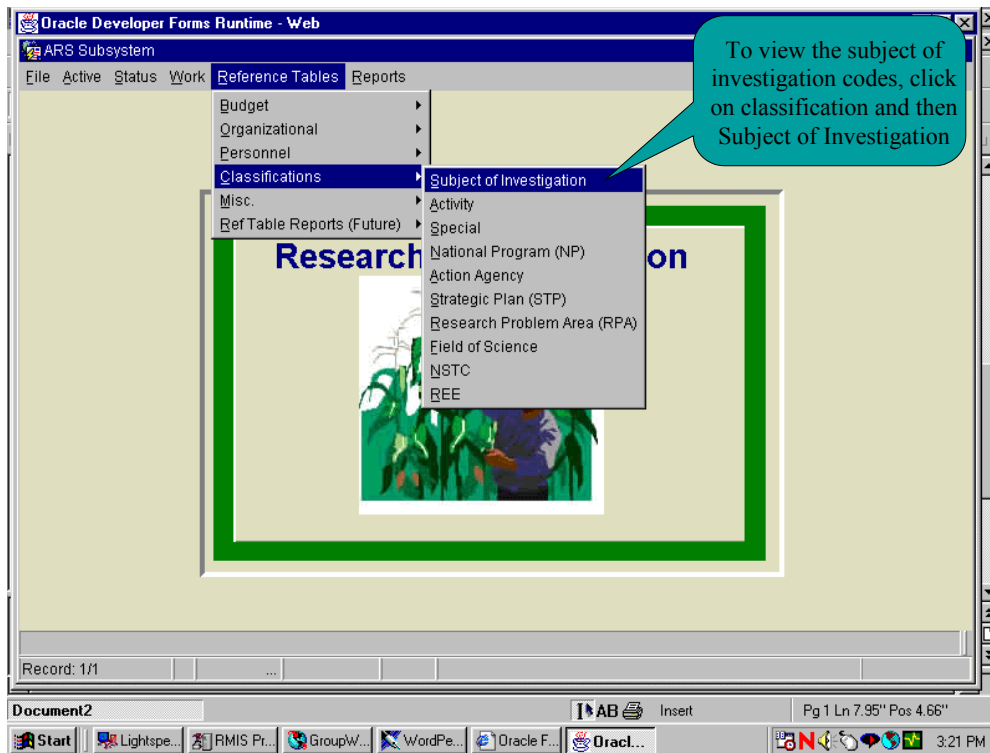

Reference tables are available to view for all codes within ARIS.

From the ARIS Main menu, click on “Research Documentation.” Then click on Reference Tables on the toolbar. A list of categories for different Reference Tables will be displayed.

From the list, click on the appropriate category and another list will be displayed with your options for viewing. Click on the appropriate one and view as needed. When done, click on the exit icon to return the Research Documentation screen.

In order to view the codes needed for the AD-417, click on “classifications” on the list of options. A list of all the types of codes will be displayed. Click on the appropriate one to view and the listing will be displayed.

Options include the following:
